

Apply now

Diploma in Global Health Procurement and Supply Chain Management

Duration: 6 months online course

Fees: USD 1,250 (exclusive of taxes and bank charges)

Special price for group enrollments.

The course provides an overview of PSM topics and issues, including the role of government, donors, manufacturers, procurement agents, and more. The course is for health professionals in public health programs (donors, government, NGOs, civil society, academia) and people interested in understanding supply chain/logistics issues.

Course Overview

This course aims to provide an overview of approaches in the procurement and supply chain management field.

It aims to introduce basic terminology and fundamental concepts of essential medicines.

The course highlights the underlying principles of efforts aiming to improve the access and effective supply chain management of public health commodities at all levels.

Course Contents

- Introduction to procurement & supply chain management
- Public health commodities
- Global health procurement
- Storage & distribution
- PSM support functions & systems

You Will Be Provided With:

- Certificate from Empower School of Health
- Six months of technical support on all PSM topics related to this course.
- Helpdesk and student support
- Web-based training
- Faculty with global experience
- International standards
- Assessments and quiz

12-03-2024